Of Interest
to the Ladies...

Few women care for the hair as they should. When the hair begins to come out they are alarmed. It would be much better if they give it more attention when it is in a healthy condition. The first requisite in the care of the hair is a GOOD TONIC. Just the kind we keep. Our Hair Tonic will kill dandruff. Stop the hair from falling out. Cure itchiness of the scalp. Make the hair soft and glossy. It keeps the hair and scalp in a healthy condition.
Try a bottle and give it a trial.

VIEWS OF THE LOCAL PRESS.

A PLANTATION OWNER DIS-CUSES ON WHAT TO DO WITH LABORERS.

First Lot of Aliens Naturalized by Judge Little—Discussing Improved Mail Service—Local News Notes.

The Herald voices the sentiments of the people in advocating local government for the island of Hawaii. When the Hawaiian bill was before Congress it was fondly hoped that it would be mandatory upon the part of the local Legislature to establish local government, but this hope was not realized; what was done in the Senate was undone in the House, and Hawaii is little nearer local control of affairs than it was ten years ago.

The Herald does not, nor do the people of the island of Hawaii, object to Honolulu continuing the present form of government—what the Herald wants is local government for this island. It is real nice for a paper like the Advertiser to say that Hilo may have this, that, or the other thing from the next Legislature, but the Advertiser seemingly forgets that the last Council of State appropriated liberally for improvements here, but that none of the money was authorized to be expended.
Honolulu get everything appropriated, Hawaii got nothing. It is not to be wondered that the Advertiser favors a continuation of the present style of government and points with dread at the enormous increase in taxation that will follow the establishment of local government. If the Herald were located in Honolulu, where the people get a square deal, its columns would probably team with the same sort of arguments as the Advertiser now uses, but being in Hilo, a town deserving of recognition and getting none, makes all the difference in the world.

The people of Hawaii are taxed and pay more for improvements and luxuries in Honolulu than will be paid as a pro rata toward the maintenance of territorial government—it contributes toward the maintenance of a band, the music of which it never hears; it builds sewers, streets and buildings for Honolulu and gets nothing for itself, for the simple reason that the officials who have the power to authorize do not consider that Hilo needs anything, and that opinion is given without the officials coming here to inspect the place.
—Herald.

The failure of Congress to make local self government mandatory here was, as we pointed out at the time, unfortunate; and it will be only by the most strenuous endeavors, if at all, that it can be brought about in the next Legislature. All who have the welfare of the Territory and its general development at heart should work to get into the Legislature as many men as possible who will work wisely and zealously for this; and party lines should not in such a matter be allowed to interfere with the working out of the result desired. The Advertiser and its people have for years consistently worked against the best interests of the islands, and they still show an unfortunate tendency to keep it up.—Tribune.

Improved Mail Service.

In the question of improved mail service the Tribune has frequently tried to work up a little vitality in the islands; its vitalizing energy is perhaps sometimes misdirected; people have so stated in Saturday morning interviews.
But provide! the enlivening business amounts to something after a while, the main object is accomplished.

"Your remarks in the Tribune week before last," said a well known gentleman who runs a stage line, "were somewhat off. The government will not allow anything for extra mail carrying. They fix their regular schedules and go by them. Now the thing for you to do is to agitate the proposition that when a schedule for island mail carrying is fixed, that it shall inform more to Hilo's needs than the present one. If the United States postal authorities decide that Hilo needs only one mail a week, and one which makes no particular connections with Coast steamers, why that is all we shall get; but as a matter of fact, there should be two mails leaving regularly each week each way on that route. One Wednesday and one Saturday, perhaps.
Then if one steamer just misses a foreign mail, as the Kinau does frequently now, we shall not be obliged to wait a whole week for another. If the postal people think we need this the cost will not cut any figure, but they will not spend five cents on irregular or unscheduled transportation, however much we need it."—Tribune.

Become American Citizens.

The opportunity now being given to those residents who have not previously taken the oath of allegiance to the Republic of Hawaii or to the United States to become citizens of the latter country and of the Territory, has been taken advantage of by quite a large number during the past week so that there will be a bunch of votes east this year by those who have never taken a hand in Hawaiian politics previously.
Judge Little held court for this purpose from Monday until Thursday, inclusive, and the following became American citizens "good and regular standing": A. C. Steele, H. T. Hambly, C. O. Smith, G. F. Alfonso, F. G. de Cosa, V. A. Carvalho, J. P. Fernandez, Sr.; Jose Vierra, J. G. Serrao, E. de Silva, J. Duarte, Geo. Kaeser, J. Bur-kitts, J. Pritchard, D. Lycurgus, A. B.
Lindsay, J. A. Humburg, Wm. McKay, J. C. Gaudin, J. E. Rocha, A. E. Sat-ton, M. J. de Gouvea, Manoel Pereira, Jules C. Carvalho, L. Turner, Peter Gibb, F. E. Haley, J. T. Moir, F. E.
Hime, Geo. V. Jakins, R. Howie, J. C.
Hattie, A. Zimmerman, O. Omsted, A.
E. Horan, J. E. Gamallison, W. McKay, E. W. Barnard, W. Nicolls, Michael

Kot, John Hamilton, Diego G. Jardim, Jose Carvalho, M. de F. Spindola, Marx Coutinho, Decalio de Santiago, J.
Elliot, S. W. Webb, J. H. Bole.—Hilo Tribune.

Samples of Centralized Government.

One of the points in the Advertiser argument against local self government is the expense of larger printing bills.
Or to put it plainly some of the printing that is now done in Honolulu may, under local self-government, come to Hilo. As a sample of what a centralized form of government does for the outside districts, the Herald would cite the case of the board of registration. When Election Commissioner Wray Taylor came here a week ago he brought with him posters, pens, ink, paper, lead pencils and erasers for the use of the board, and it was a liberal supply. His instructions to the board were to make the days on which the board would sit public, but get it in the papers free; boards are not to spend any money for advertising. Now that is centralized government with a vengeance. Hilo has taxpayers who deal in the commodities which Mr.
Taylor distributed, but the board was not allowed to buy them here. What applies in this case is true of the board of education; school supplies must be procured at the board's sale shop in Honolulu. The Herald asks fair dealing toward the people of Hawaii. Under the present form of government they do not get it; with local self government they will be in their own hands and all things will not be pulled from Honolulu.—Hilo Herald.

What to Do With Orientals.

A gentleman who is prominently identified with plantation interests and with all other matters as well which advance the general welfare of the Territory, said recently in an interview with a representative of the Tribune: "You ought to place emphasis in your paper upon the proposition: No work on government jobs for Chinese or Japanese.
Plenty of work to get them here, but of late the government has taken many of them into its employ, giving them high wages and taking them from plantations which had brought them into the country. The only place for Chinese or for Japs should be the plantations.
Plenty of white people can be gotten for other work, and all can be benefited by throwing the Asiatic huck on the plantations where they belong and whose owners paid to get them here."
—Tribune.

What Has Wilcox Ever Done?

According to Robert Wilcox, it is to be that Hawaii will listen to the utterances of Mr. Wilcox should ask themselves what he ever did for his race, and then go to the polls and vote for the candidates on the Republican ticket.—Herald.

Short News Notes of Hilo.

Mrs. James Campbell and daughter left Hilo on Wednesday for Kawahoe, en route to their home in Honolulu.

A. C. Steele, manager of the Tribune Publishing Company, was the first Britisher to be naturalized in the circuit court last Monday.

Rev. Mr. Pearson of the Methodist church in Honolulu, arrived by the Kinau and will conduct the services at the First Foreign church tomorrow.

The Hilo railroad continues to boast a big passenger traffic between Hilo and Nine Miles. This is getting to be a very popular Sunday excursion trip.

C. N. Wright, wife and daughter are in Hilo with a view to making this place their permanent residence. Mr.
Wright spent some time in Skagway and was one of the first men at Nome.

Judge Estee will arrive in Hilo by the next Kinau and will hold a term of the federal court here. He will also naturalize those who are desirous of becoming citizens and are so qualified.

Mr. T. C. Willis of Pahala, with his two daughters, left by the Mauna Loa en route for the Coast for the purpose of placing his two daughters in an educational institution.

J. A. McCandless and W. A. Rowell of the department of public works came up as far as Mahukona by the Kinau. They will proceed overland to Hilo, arriving here some time next week.

Joe Birkenshaw of Honokaa says he came to the islands twenty years ago, believing he was an American. He has taken all the oaths in sight since then, but never became naturalized until last Monday.

About twenty-five Galicians were before Judge Little on Wednesday for the purpose of declaring their intention to become American citizens and taking out their first papers. They have been in the country three years, and if at the end of two years more they are found able to read, write and speak the English language, they will be naturalized.
